

Something's Fishy Over At Lion's Share Entertainment!

Lion's Share Entertainment Inc., the Orlando based television production company that specializes in bringing new products to the market using infomercials is working on the ultimate fishing gadget, called the *Fisherman's Caddy*TM.

The product is a combination bait container, fish bucket, cooler, chair, fishing pole holder, umbrella holder, and tackle box holder, -all in one! Used for carrying your day's catch, lunch, bait, and anything else that needs to be kept cool while out on a boat, lake side, pier, or where-ever ones favorite fishing spot is, the *Fisherman's Caddy*TM is a multi-compartment cooler with room enough to hold all of your daily necessities in an easy travel design meant to be pulled behind (just like a golf tote). No more ham sandwiches with that fresh fish flavor! This cooler also includes a rod holder, an umbrella stand, and wheels so that is can be easily moved to find that perfect fishing spot.

And the *Fisherman's Caddy*TM can be used for much more than just fishing! The product is just as useful for backyard barbeques, picnics, camping or tailgating! Lion's Share Entertainment is working with the inventors of *Fisherman's Caddy*TM to manufacture, as well as, create an infomercial to launch the *Fisherman's Caddy*TM.
